

HOUSTON PALESTINE FILM FESTIVAL

The Houston Palestine Film Festival invites artists to submit films for its fifth annual film festival in Houston, Texas, May 2011.

The Houston Palestine Film festival aims to bring an independent view of Palestinian culture, society and Politics. The first two festivals were a local success with recognition from community members and city officials.

Palestinian artists or artists whose work deals with Palestinian culture, society and Politics are encouraged to submit their productions for review by the committee. Documentary, docudrama or fiction films of any duration will be considered for inclusion in the festival.

Please submit all requests before January 31st, 2012

Please send a good quality DVD screener of your film and the completed entry form of your work to the following address:
