

Running for the Houston Palestine Film Festival

Support Sary Joudah's marathon run for HPFF

Hi,

On Sunday January 17, 2010, I will be running in the Chevron Houston Marathon (26.2 miles.) Although it is a personal goal to run this challenging race, I am dedicating my participation in the marathon to benefit this film festival. HPFF is an organization that is very dear to my heart and I am hoping you will support me in helping raise much needed funding for the 4th annual event. I look forward to your support.

You can help by filling out this simple form and mailing your donation

I _____ (your name) _____, pledge to support Sary Joudah's dedicated run of the 2010 Houston Marathon(26.2 miles) on January 17, 2010 to benefit the 4th annual Houston Palestine Film Festival. I agree to send a tax deductible donation to (checks only please). Please make your check payable to Houston Palestine Film Festival.

Please Mail it to:

Houston Palestine Film Festival

c/o Sary Joudah

4400 Memorial Dr, Apt# 2244

Houston, TX 77007

Please select your pledge choice from the options below:

1. () $10.00 per mile($10x26.2miles), your total donation = $ 262.00
2. () $15.00 per mile($15x26.2miles), your total donation= $ 393.00
3. () $20.00 per mile($20x26.2miles), your total donation= $ 524.00

You can track my progress on race day (1/17/2010) online at www.chevronhoustonmarathon.com. Go to the athlete tracking section and look me up under runner # 7997. Official finisher results will be posted online as well.

The Houston Palestine Film Festival is a nonprofit 501(c) (3) tax exempt organization based in Houston, Texas. The 4th annual Houston Palestine Film Festival is coming in May 2010. For more information about this organization, you can visit www.hpff.org. We thank you for your support and look forward to seeing you at the many events we have planned for the community!